21 The above-captioned case is currently scheduled for a detention hearing on April 5, 2012.
22 Assistant United States Attorney Natalie Lee has notified defense counsel that she has learned that 23 he county probation office is going to execute a probation hold on Mr. Meyers. It is the intention 24 of both parties to continue the detention hearing the remaining days to allow probation to lodge
25 their hold if they chose to do so, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3142(d). Accordingly, the parties now 26 stipulate and jointly request that the status date be continued to April 16, 2012 at 9:30 A.M.
